

California State Parks Closure List 2011

Due to budget cuts, the California State Parks system announced a plan to close 70 of its 278 parks. The first parks will start to be shuttered in September 2011 and all 70 slated California state parks should be completely shut down by July 2012. The following 70 California state parks are on the list to be closed:

Anderson Marsh State Historical Park	McConnell State Recreation Area
Annadel State Park	McGrath State Beach
Antelope Valley Indian Museum	Mono Lake Tufa Reserve
Austin Creek State Recreation Area	Morro Strand State Beach
Bale Grist Mill State Historic Park	Moss Landing State Beach
Benbow Lake State Recreation Area	Olompali State Historic Park
Benicia Capitol State Historic Park	Palomar Mountain State Park
Benicia State Recreation Area	Petaluma Adobe State Historic Park
Bidwell Mansion State Historic Park	Picacho State Recreation Area
Bothe-Napa Valley State Park	Pio Pico State Historic Park
Brannan Island State Recreation Area	Plumas-Eureka State Park
California State Mining & Mineral Museum	Point Cabrillo Light Station
Candlestick Point State Recreation Area	Portola Redwoods State Park
Castle Crags State Park	Providence Mountains State Recreation Area
Castle Rock State Park	Railtown 1897 State Historic Park
China Camp State Park	Russian Gulch State Park
Colusa-Sacramento River State Recreation Area	Saddleback Butte State Park
Del Norte Coast Redwoods State Park	Salton Sea State Recreation Area
Fort Humboldt State Historic Park	Samuel P. Taylor State Park
Fort Tejon State Historic Park	San Pasqual Battlefield State Historic Park
Garrapata State Park	Santa Cruz Mission State Historic Park
George J. Hatfield State Recreation Area	Santa Susana Pass State Historic Park
Governor's Mansion State Historic Park	Shasta State Historic Park
Gray Whale Cove State Beach	South Yuba River State Park
Greenwood Creek State Beach	Standish-Hickey State Recreation Area
Grizzly Creek Redwoods State Park	Sugarloaf Ridge State Park
Hendy Woods State Park	Tomales Bay State Park
Henry W. Coe State Park	Tule Elk State Reserve
Jack London State Historic Park	Turlock Lake State Recreation Area
Jug Handle State Reserve	Twin Lakes State Beach
Leland Stanford Mansion State Historic Park	Weaverville Joss House State Historic Park
Limekiln State Park	Westport-Union Landing State Beach
Los Encinos State Historic Park	William B Ide Adobe State Park
Malakoff Diggins State Historic Park	Woodson Bridge State Recreation Area
Manchester State Park	Zmudowski State Beach Park